IN THE publication of this volume of the KALEIDOSCOPE, our purpose has been to advance the traditions of our school, to record the year's activities, and to perpetuate the spirit of our undergraduate life for the classes to come. It is our most sincere hope that this book may serve as an inspiration for a greater and more resplendent future.

YEAR BOOK BOARD

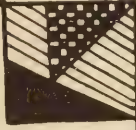

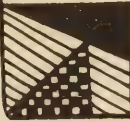

THIS YEAR the Senior Class is dedicating its Annual to two friends,

MISS HELEN M. BOND
and

MISS DORA G. LOCKWOOD, who have been inseparably associated in our minds throughout our stay in school.

R. G. S.

WE the Senior Class of 1930 wish to honor two of our faculty who have been teachers to most of us and inspiring friends to all of us. In this way we express our appreciation of their loyalty and service to our class.

CLASS POEM

TO OUR ALMA MATER

Dark ivy, glossy green with hint of blue,
That mantless, mellows some the ruddy hue
Of red-brick wall that will come smiling through,
Displaying graceful lines in spotless
white;
Green grass below, the sprightly steps
and clean;
Brown lamp posts—we will not forget
the scene,
And all have learned to love the pleasant sight.

Now we must on; else, what's the use of life?
Yet each upon his road of toil and strife,
Each at his chosen task will ever bear
His bit of ivy and his memory fair;
And time is sure to come when he will bless
A passing thought of dear old P. H. S.

"A heart full of cheerfulness and good will."

Bernard High 1; Hi-Tri 2,3,4; Designer for Musical Comedy 4.

AN ALL AROUND good sport is Mim. She rolls her work and play into one and makes a good job of it. Mim's favorite sport is swimming, and in the near future we will find Mim depriving Helen Meaney of her diving title.

ALMA BAKER

Al

General C Undecided

"Young as I am, yet I would do my best."

SHE croons in biology while the arthropods dance for joy, but nevertheless Alma is a serious minded lass always willing to lend a hand wherever it is needed.

ROBERT BARNES

Bob

"And certainly he was a good fellow."

P.H.S. Band 3, 4; Class Basketball Team 3,4.

HISTORIANS disagree as to whether he was born with a natural talent for music, but they are unanimous in hailing him as a versatile musician, the master of at least the piano, the organ, and the tuba.

MILDRED BENDER

Billie

Commercial

Business

"A delightful combination of sympathy and good will."

Greek Fantasy 1; Hi-Tri 1,3,4; Basketball 2,3; Tennis 2.

IN SPITE of her quietness, Mildred has a winning way. When she is a secretary out in the cold world far from the shelter of P. H. S., we know that same winning manner will make for her success.

ALMERINO BIMONTE

Al

General

Undecided

"Be silent and safe, for silence never betrays."

SALESMAN de-luxe, he certainly knows his leather and hides. Some day he will be one of our prosperous shoe dealers, or another friend who is making good in business.

EDITH AMELIA BIRDSALL

Edie

Commercial

Business

"Her company is an everlasting pleasure."

Field Day 1; Christmas Decorating 1; Glee Club 3; Musical Comedy 4.

"A friend to all, and to all a friend."

French Club 3; Debating Society 3; Student Patrol 3, 4.

JOHN BOCCIA

Johnny

Classical College

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

High School Orchestra 1,2,3,4.

JOHNNY is a pleasant fellow whose cheerful disposition has made him scores of friends. His musical ability, too, should not be overlooked. Although he is only a little fellow, when he becomes a M.D., he swears he will do big things like lifting elephants' faces.

Gwen, Gwennie

General C Undecided

"Blessed are they who have the gift of making friends."

Greek Fantasy 1; Gym Demonstration 3; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; Junior Decorating Committee 3; Year Book Board 4.

GWENNIE is one of our prettiest girls. A willing worker with winning ways. You never really know whether Gwen means what she says or not because she would keep a straight face before Eddie Cantor, but girls will be girls.

ELIZABETH H. BROWER

Betty

General C Business

"I love to dance, I love to play."

Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; Dramatic Society 1,2,3,4; Basketball 1,2; Track 2; Hockey 1; Musical Comedy 4.

BETTY's favorite hobby is dancing. Sweet music rising from the obscure depths of the orchestra pit proclaims her presence. Then, too, we have 1930's woman-of-the-world, Betty being the most sophisticated in the class.

JAMES BRYAN

Jimmy

Classical Columbia

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth."

Class Football 4; Musical Comedy 4.

ALMOST every afternoon we see Jimmy studying Latin so that he can study law at Columbia. After he is admitted to the bar, Jimmy will specialize in divorce cases. His slogan will be "Broken hearts mended at nominal fees."

Senior Play Committee 4; Dramatic Society 1,2,3,4; Debating Society 4; Bank 3; Musical Comedy 4; Senior Play 4.

TALK! In debating, acting, declaiming, or chattering, it is Billy. No matter which way you put it, he excels even a woman. However, Billy plans to take a business course at N. Y. U., but we maintain he should be a lawyer.

LAWRENCE DiLONARDO

Larry, Sonny, Di

Scientific Undecided

"Full of unconquerable energies."

Varsity Baseball 3,4; Golf 3; Class Basketball 3,4.

DI is going to be a physics-aphyzis— We give up. Anyway he is going to be one. While in P. H. S., he has improved each shining hour by making a name for himself in athletics. P. H. S. will surely miss his support on the teams.

 pears on the scene, we are always sure of a good laugh.

P.T.A. Entertainment 3; Christmas Decorating Committee 3; Field Day Pageant 1; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; Hockey 1,2,3,4; P.T.A. Gym Exhibition 2.

HA! HA! Kay's discovered someone else's suppressed desire. The funny thing about it is that she never reveals her own. We wonder who it is? Kay tries to varnish over her good nature, but she doesn't succeed, much to our joy.

LUCILLE SUTPHEN

Ceil, Suppie

Classical Russell Sage College

DOROTHY VAN CLEVE

Dot, Dottie

Classical Undecided

"Old friends are best."

Haddonfield High School 1; Presidential Campaign—P.A.D. 3; French Club 3,4; Hi-Tri 4.

DOT is another of those brilliant math students. How we envy them! She started in Haddonfield, but when she heard of Plainfield High, she packed up and came north.

NEAL ROGER VAN MIDDLESWORTH

Van

Classical University of Michigan

*"A little nonsense now and then,
Is relished by the best of men."*

Oracle 3,4; Kaleidoscope 4; Senior Play 4; Student Patrol 4; Glee Club 3.

THIS, ladies and gentlemen, is the only picture of Neal Roger Van Middlesworth, Esq., ever exhibited to the public. Gaze upon it while you may. You'll never see another. This handsome fellow is a poet.

HENRY C. VAN ZANDT

Dutch

Scientific College

"Everything he sees cheers and delights him."

Football Squad 2,3; Reserve Team 3; Musical Comedy 2.

HENRY has dabbled in a little bit of biology, science, math, and mountain climbing. Perhaps it was due to his mathematical education here, that he was able to dissect successfully a specimen of the feline family. But who couldn't under the guidance of such a charming girl.

HELEN CAROLYN VREMSAK

Vrem, Lou

Commercial Art School

"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

Basketball 2,3,4; Track 3; Debating Club 4; Musical Comedy 4; Hockey 4; German Club 4; Christmas Decorating 1,2,3.

HELEN has quite a musical talent, as well as the ability to argue. Saturday mornings you'll find Helen on her way to New York, and in the future we shall most likely see her name leading the lists of New York artists.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

HELEN WALKER

Squeek

General Undecided

Basketball; Hockey; Track; Hi-Tri; Swimming; Chairman of Picture Hanging Committee 1930; Oracle Pageant 2; G.A.A. Board 3; Hi-Tri Cabinet; Debating 3.

For five years "Squeek" has led the rest on the athletic field. Hockey, basketball, swimming; all these sports are in Squeek's line. Her humor is great.

SALLY A. WALTERS

Sal

General N. Y. U. Secretarial School

"A kind face is a good face."

Greek Fantasy 1; Christmas Decorating Committee 1,2; Swimming Team 2; P.T.A. Program 3; Music Week Celebration 2; Basketball 1.

SALLY is going to be a secretary.

Well, good luck to you. We hope you hit the typewriter as well as you swim and dive. You've helped so ably on the swimming team, we expect you to swim the channel some day.

Chapel Usher 4; Glee Club 3; Basketball 1; Archery 4; Musical Comedy 4; Christmas Decorating Committee 1,2; Year Book Board 4; Music Week Program 3; 4th Prize Frank D. Ely Contest 4; State Penmanship Contest 4; Greek Fantasy 1.

HERE'S another of our "would be" secretaries. Eleanor has done all the typing for this year book and we take off our hats to her. She certainly will get on in the world.

MARGARET K. WESSELL

Classical Mt. Holyoke College

"She doeth little kindnesses which others have undone."

Debating 2; German Club 4; Kaleidoscope Board 4.

MARGARET is a talented miss. The quotations in the KALEIDOSCOPE are Margaret's work, and if you ask her, she'll tell you it really was work. Well, Margaret we appreciate it, really we do.

NILS WESSEL

Nich, Swede

Scientific

Rutgers

Columbus Day Exercise 1; Vice-President Junior Debating Society 2; Student Patrol 4; Chapel Usher 4; Armistice Day Exercise 4; Lincoln's Day Exercise 3; Treasurer German Club 4; Senior Play Committee 4; Year Book Board 4; Orchestra 2, 3.

EVERYTHING he says carries conviction, yet it is enlivened by a typical and inimitable wit. Whatever Nils does, he will always be able to make and keep friends. But seriously, Nils is the finest sort of a fellow you could ask for and is an excellent student besides.

VIVIEN ALMA WHEELER

Fudge

General

Undecided

"Virtue is to herself the best reward."

Greek Fantasy 1; Christmas Decorating Committee 1,2,3; "Hilda of Holland." Electrical Board 2; Baseball 1,2,3; Echoing Hearts 4; Junior Track Manager 3.

THUS, another girl leaves Plainfield High after spending five years of her precious time here. Quiet, demure, and saintly is Vivien and a good worker as well.

JOSEPHINE WHITTINGTON

Joe

Commercial

Business

"The seal of truth is simplicity."

HERE's another one of Plainfield's pretty girls. Joe isn't very prominent in school activities, but in the social world she's a belle. She has a very sunny disposition and a pleasant smile for all her friends.

EMIL is quiet, dignified, and neat. He is popular both socially and scholastically. We have discovered that Emil speaks German and French with a great deal of exactness.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

ROGER WILLIAMS

General

"A quiet lad but a good one."

Electrical Squad.

ROGER is the grand, supreme, illustrious electrician. Although he handles thousands of volts lately, he is so careful that he has never shocked any of us very seriously. That is, not yet. However, he might break loose some day.

EILEEN E. WOLFF

Classical

Radcliffe College

"A little of diety, a little bit of nobility, and a little bit of risque."

Greek Pageant 1; Dramatic Society 1; Debating Society 4; Library Service Council 3,4; Hockey 2,3,4; Tennis 3; Track 1,2; Basketball 2,4; French Club 3,4; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; First Prize Cicero Translation 3; Secretary Library Service Council 4; Swimming.

AH, we have a budding genius among us. We often wonder what is going on underneath that mass of curls when Eileen is sitting—oh, so still, during English. Or writing poetry—oh, so diligently, during Chemistry.

WILLIAM HENRY WOLTERS

General

University of Pennsylvania

"Virtue lies in the struggle, not in the prize."

TO our knowledge Bill has but one serious fault. He gets up too early in the morning. You've probably seen our early bird up there in the third corridor studying about the time the majority of us lazy folks decide to get up.

F. EVELYN YOUNG

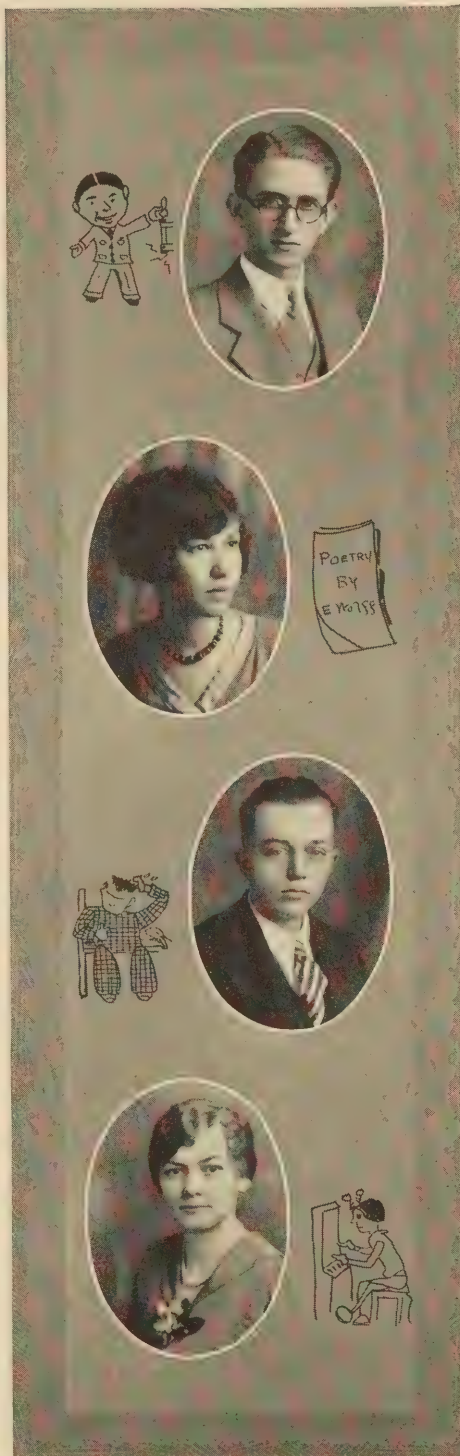

General

Undecided

*"None knew thee but to love thee
Nor named thee but to praise."*

Class Officer 1; Student Council 1; Oracle Board 2; Student Patrol 3; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; Orchestra 3,4; Junior Play Committee 3; Room Decorating Committee 3,4; Musical Comedy 2; Basketball 1; Hockey 1; Greek Fantasy 1.

EVELYN has been a credit to her country (class). In her Freshman year she was our treasurer. Ev is very musical. She tickles the keys for the orchestra. She has also served on the patrol, Oracle board, and Student Council.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

HELEN MURIEL ZIMMER

Zim, Jimmy

Commercial Ballard School

"I have a heart with room for every joy."

State Penmanship Contest 1; Radio Shorthand Contest 3; Certificate Order of Gregg Artists 3; Business Staff of Musical Comedy 4.

WE NOTICE that Helen's friends don't mind the cloudy weather when in her company. Helen's sunny disposition is a natural born element and is the first essential in business. Will Helen succeed? The Senior Class says "Yes" in unison.

MARY BRINKLEY

Maizee, Blondie

General Music—Piano and Harp

"A kindly smile to all she lent."

Basketball, Tennis.

WE HAVE heard the rumor that Mary is quite fond of bugs and spirit lamps, but only Mary will tell you the truth. However, Mary has a rather good sense of humor, and she can be found the cause of many the laughs at lunch.

REID BUSH

General Cornell

*"For many we search before we find
A heart so manly and so kind."*

Peddle Prep 1; Book Club 4, 5.

POET, philosopher, critic. Reid is all there. He is quiet and reserved. He is second Cal Coolidge, but when he does speak, words of wisdom drop from his lips. We expect to hear more of Reid later.

DOROTHY MAE BUTLER

Dot

General College—Music

"Nothing endures but personal qualities."

Tennis; Basketball.

DOT must be a very unusual girl. She says she is going to college to study. The KALEIDOSCOPE Board wishes her luck at her future work.

ANNIE ELIZABETH CIAMPA

Ann, Anita

Commercial Business
"Not much talk—a great, sweet silence."
 Greek Fantasy 2.

ANNIE is going to try her skill in the secretarial world like many other of our classmates. There's a hard road ahead of her, but she can make the grade, we feel certain.

ROBERT S. CLARKE

Bob

General University of Michigan
"Thinking is but an idle waste of thought."

BOB proved his skill in the electrical line when he played with the switches back-stage as a member of the Electrical Board. He is greatly interested in Automotive Engineering. He hopes to graduate from an engineering school so that he may delve into the mysteries of automobile motors, especially Pontiacs.

WALTER CLISSOLD

General Undecided
"His virtues are great, his faults are little."

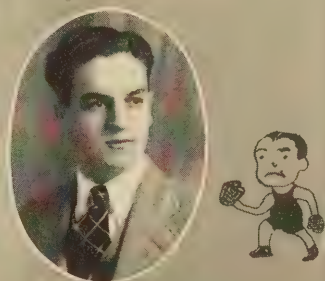

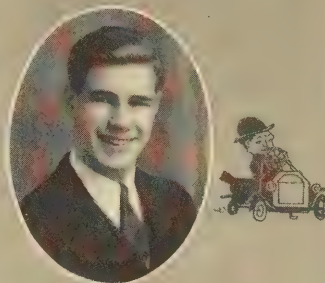

Track 1; Library Council 1,2,3,4; Junior Manager Football 2; Senior Manager Baseball 3; Junior Roast Committee.

WALTER hails from Bound Brook, and if you have any more like him, send them down, Bound Brook. He is very considerate in asking students how they feel. It's getting to be quite a habit, but nevertheless, Walter means well. He is also quite active in sports besides managing them.

GEORGE COLUCCI

General Undecided
"To do my best and play my part."

THIS lad is one of the funniest in our class, humorous, I mean. We wonder with Mr. Patch when Georgie will grow up. However, Mr. Colucci is not a fellow to pick a fight with. He is alone in his weight as a boxer.

RENE COSSANO

Ren

General Agriculturist

"I will study and get ready."

Freshman year, Oakland High School, Oakland, Nebraska; Sophomore Year, North High School, Omaha, Nebraska; Debating Society; Senior Football Team; Senior Basketball Team; Cane Rush.

RENE comes to us from out west where men are men. Thus, here is a man. Rene is intensely interested in agriculture and we believe that he will be successful. Rene is a good scout and a dandy fellow.

HELEN DAVIS

Dutch

General College

"A star did you say? A whole constellation."

Glee Club 3,4; Musical Comedy 4; Student Patrol 4; Hockey 2,3.

AH, MISS PARIS, in person. None other than Helen herself. What a charming picture she makes—a rest for weary eyes at all times. Helen is another musical member and we often hear her warbling away in the glee club.

CHESTER GALLOWAY

Chet

General Bell Laboratories, New York

"Cheerful whenever you meet him."

Class Baseball 3,4; Baseball Reserve 3; Stage Manager Musical Comedy 4; Junior Play 4; Class Basketball 4.

ACTOR supreme, Chet had the audience roaring by his antics in the Junior Play. Chet likes to do anything connected with the stage. He is also somewhat of a baseball player. We know he will be a success in the world of discovery as he intends to enter the Bell Laboratories.

CAROLYN GEIGER

General Normal School

"A quiet even temperament and in her work she's quite content."

CAROLYN is certainly a good worker. She is sure to make an excellent teacher, for she has had plenty of practice and a winning way with children as well as grown folks.

BEATRICE GOLDBERG

Bea

General Undecided

"A woman is always changeable and capricious."

Dramatic Society 4; Christmas Decoration Committee 1,2; Banker, Pageant 1,2; Memorial Day Exercise 3.

BEA is going to be a stenographer, and we hope that her employer will like her as much as we do.

BERTHA L. HAMILTON

Bert

Commercial Business

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

BERTHA is going to be a stenographer. Never for you, Bertha. We know you'd make a good stenographer, but we can't see you taking orders from any man. No, indeed, you'll settle down and marry and rule the roost.

BERTRAM HETFIELD

Bert

Classical Dartmouth

"My thoughts and my conduct are my own."

Class Baseball 2; Reserve Football 2,3; Varsity Football 4; Class Football 3.

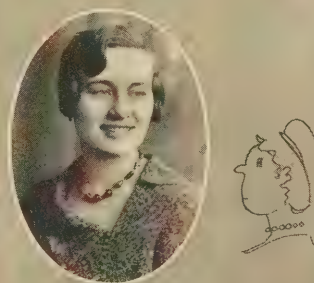

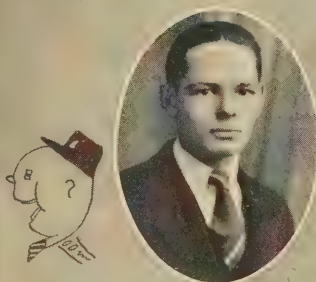

THERE are some of us who don't say much but who have always been ready to do their bit for P. H. S. Bert belongs to this group. His good nature, fine sportsmanship, and perseverance have won him many friends.

MARY KACZOR

General Undecided

"Whatever is worth doing at all, is worth doing well."

MARY is so much like Stella that we have had a hard time deciding which picture to put beside which write-up. Hope we have it right. Mary is an awfully good sport and has been so willing to lend a hand that we shall miss her very much.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

STELLA E. KACZOR

Stell

General Bucknell

"Good nature is a great asset."

Field Day 1; Gym Demonstration 3; Junior Play Committee 3; Art Exhibition 1,3; Christmas Decorating Committee 1,2,3,4.

STELLA is a clever miss. If anything requires quick thinking and managing, call on Stella. She is also a good hand at algebra. Luck to you, Stella.

MARIE ANITA KALE

Babe

General Normal School

"Not stepping o'er the bounds of modesty."

Greek Fantasy 1; Christmas Decorating Committee 1,2,3; Gym Pageant 2.

MARIE is small and graceful and is very fond of dancing. She's quiet, oh, so quiet, but a good, loyal friend. Usually quiet people make the best of friends to confide in.

HAZEL E. KLINGER

Sunshine

General Music

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels."

Field Day 1; P.H.S. Orchestra 1,2,3,4; County Orchestra 4; Graduation Orchestra 1,2,3; Play Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Musical Comedy Orchestra 4; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; Public Safety Patrol 4.

IF EVER there lived a person with a golden heart, it is Hazel. She'll do anything for anybody and so willingly that it is a pleasure to work with her. Moreover, Hazel is a musician of no small note. We wish her success in her musical career.

VINCENT G. LOCKE

Vince

General Business

"The man that blushes is not quite a brute."

Debating 3,4.

VINNY is a quiet fellow until you know him and then hold on. There may be funnier people, but we are doubtful. He is so funny that he says he's going to sell insurance. Hope you save some lives, Vince.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

ADELE ELIZABETH McVOY

General

Business

"Life may be one grand sweet song to some, but it's written in ragtime for many."

Greek Fantasy 1; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4.

GOOD things come in small packages—at least Bob thinks so. We often wonder how small Adele would be if she removed her high heels. We don't see how she could be any smaller, but just look at those heels. Will miracles never cease!

MIRIAM MACHLIN

General

Undecided

"She is pretty to walk with, and witty to talk with, and pleasant too, to think of."

AH, HA, my proud beauty, I have you at last. You know, confidentially Miriam tried to leave us two years ago, but she just couldn't stay away. So we have her back again. Well, we're glad to have her anyway.

ROBERT J. MacNAB

Bob

General

Undecided

"So very kind, yet silent."

HERE is a person who loves the merry springtime, at least it seems so, for he appears to have spring fever all year round. Bob believes in the slogan: "It is all right if you can get away with it."

IRMA FRANCES MARDER

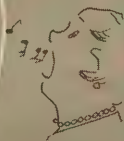

Commercial

Business

"A quiet even temperament and in her work she's quite content."

North Plainfield 1,2,3; Class Basketball Team; Girls' Glee Club; Dramatic Club Play.

HERE'S another importation from across the brook who has joined our ranks. She has taken an active part in the singing club and acting. We welcome new classmates from across the brook.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

MARTHA M. MORRIS

General Undecided
"What sweet delight a quiet life affords."
 Curtis High 1,2,3.

MARTHA led an uninteresting life until she heard of Plainfield High—and then. Well, Martha has decided she likes P. H. S. At least we hope so. Anyway Martha seems to have decided to stay here a while.

GENEVIEVE LAURA NELSON

Punch
 General Designing
"The mildest manner and the gentlest heart."

Home Arts Exhibition 1,3; Field Day 1; Drawing Exhibition 2.

GENEVIEVE is such a wee, small miss we wonder how she ever stood the gaff of the life here in P. H. S. How one little person can do so much and so well is a mystery to her classmates.

WINIFRED MAE NELSON

Winnie
 General Interior Decoration
"Patience is a virtue."

Home Arts Exhibition 1,3; Field Day 1; Drawing Exhibition 2.

WINNIE is another quiet, unassuming miss. We hardly know what to write, she is so helpful and quiet.

JOHN PROBASCO

Jack
 General College
*"And still they gazed and still the wonder grew,
 That one small head could carry all he knew."*

Electrical Squad 1,2,3.

JACK has taken an express train and whirled through four years' work in three and a half. He is the boy who added three minutes to a test period the other day. Jack fixed all the defunct clocks and broken bells. If a little smile goes a long way, Jack's has unlimited possibilities.

Ken, Robbie

*"Life is a jest and all things show it,
I thought so once, but now I know it."*

SOME people have the happy faculty of always seeing the bright side of life. Such a person is Ken. His hair-comb is the marvel of our school. It's so slick that we bet Ken's girl uses it for a mirror to powder her nose. Ken's place will be hard to fill and our less fortunate underclassmen surely will miss him.

Giggles

"She loves mirth."

MARY, as judged by her name, can create more laughter among a group of people than Harold Lloyd. Her giggles can be heard here and there, and once you hear her, you'll start laughing yourself.

Jerry

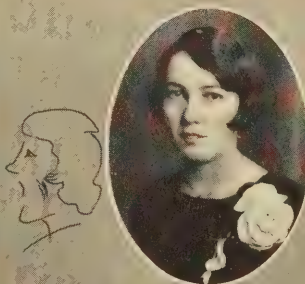

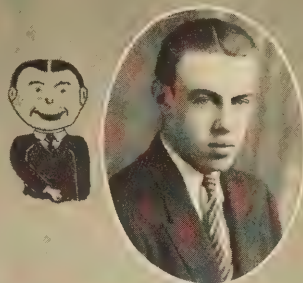

*"Gentle words, quiet words are, after all,
the most powerful words."*

More power to you. Such nice rosy cheeks would induce any man to employ her, we're sure. She'll be an efficient stenographer for someone.

Sal

"A man's a man for all o'that."

SAL says he has no achievements, but we don't think so. We know that he has supported every team whether it is baseball, basketball, track, or football. He is just chock full of school spirit.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

HELEN A. SCHENCK

General Business
"Her loveliness I never knew until she smiled on me."

HELEN is one of Plainfield High's quiet girls. Queer as it may seem, we have very few of them. She has a smile that leaves one glad to be living. It has won us here so it will surely win her a high position in business.

JEANNE M. SCHOENBAUM

General Undecided
"Eyes darker than the darkest pansies."

"VOICI MES AMIS! Une petite jeune fille francais!" Jeanne is our star French student having been born in France. We can predict a bright future for Jeanne as a French teacher, but she is undecided as to what to do.

CHARLES STEPHEN SCHULEK, JR.

Chick, Charlie
 General Undecided
"All the world loves a lover."
 Track 1,2,3,4; Electrical Board 1.

AH, HERE is a fast man. As an electrician he ought to make good, but being a lover of airplanes, he ought to follow his love. Good things are supposed to come in small packages; well, Dot and Charlie must certainly be good. But putting all joking aside, Charlie is a dandy fellow and a good scout.

JOSEPH THOMAS SPISSO

Joe
 General Banking
"Never idle a moment."
 High School Orchestra.

HERE is another of Plainfield's musical students. Joe is very quiet, studious, and industrious. We might say Joe could have a brilliant future in music, but he has planned to enter the banking world.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

BERNARD A. TOWNLEY

Bernie

General Undecided

"Why study history—I make it."

Senior Play 4.

AMONG other things, Bernie is an actor. This Thespian in real life has a pleasing and intangible something that makes you like him. Some day we hope to see Bernie's classic features dazzling Broadway.

RICHARD TWINE

General Undecided

"He is a wire who doth talk but little."

RICHARD is a quiet fellow, and we have not heard so much about him, but his friends say he is a good fellow and lots of fun and we wish we knew him better.

ELIZABETH G. VIEBROCK

General Undecided

"A sunny temper gilds the edge of darkest clouds."

ELIZABETH is an industrious miss who has a reputation of being a hard worker. That name might be a help to some of the rest of us. How do you do it, Elizabeth?

RUTH CAROLYN WHEATON

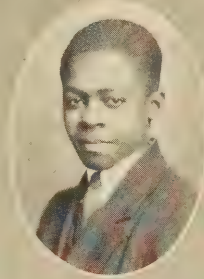

Ruthie

General Arnold

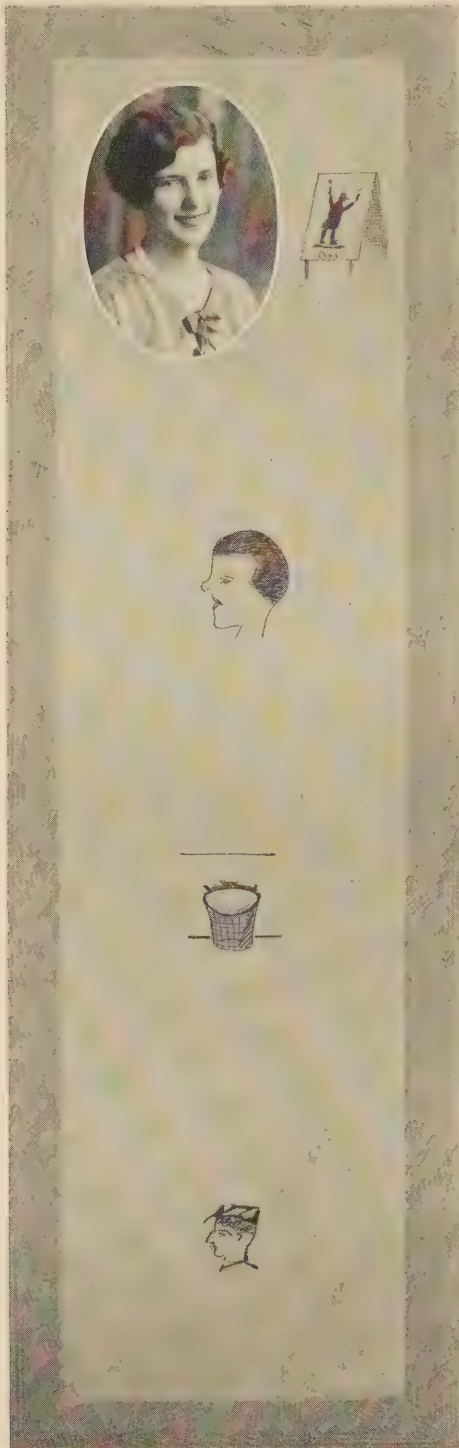

"To dance forever and then some more."

Greek Fantasy 1; Hockey 1,2,3,4; Basketball 2,3,4; Swimming 2,3,4; Track Captain 2,3; Hi-Tri 1,2,3,4; Swimming Team 1,2,3; Hi-Tri Basketball Team 4; Musical Comedy 4; Junior Roast Committee 4.

IF EVER a lady danced through High School it was Ruth. She was chosen unanimously the best dancer of '30, so draw your own conclusions. We hope she dances through college and life as successfully as she has through school.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

HELEN J. WILDAY

General Undecided

"Art is more godlike than science, Science discovers; art creates."

HELEN is a clever artist and we expect some day to see her work decorating the walls of some museum. We wish we could have seen more of her talent here in school. We have heard so much about it.

FLORENCE MAE JARVIS

Commercial Business

"Silence is the perfect herald of joy."

FLORENCE is a person very quiet but studious. To those who do not know her, she appears very unfriendly, but to those of us who know her, her sunny disposition is her best trait.

ABRAM KUNZMAN

Abe

General Undecided

"Man is made great or little by his own will."

Football 1; Baseball 1,2; Basketball 3; Cane Rush 3; Cane Rush 4.

ABE is quite a basketball star. He has been shooting for P. H. S. for several years now, and we'll miss his help on the team. Abe should be a lawyer. He is one of the two factors that make an argument around school.

ROSCOE WORMLEY, JR.

Wiggily

Classical Undecided

"We pass for what we are."

Latin Play 3.

ROSCOE is a Virgil student. Just ask anyone in first period class. Roscoe chauffeurs in his spare time and we are all going for a ride some time. Hope we will come back alive.

FOOTBALL

WHEN the first call was sounded for practice, a large squad reported. Out of these candidates and the six returning lettermen Coach Stine molded one of the scrappiest and most formidable scholastic teams in the state.

This year's schedule was one of the most difficult ever attempted by any school in the state, for it included such teams as New Brunswick, Red Bank, and Neptune. The team completed this schedule with six victories and but only two defeats and one tie.

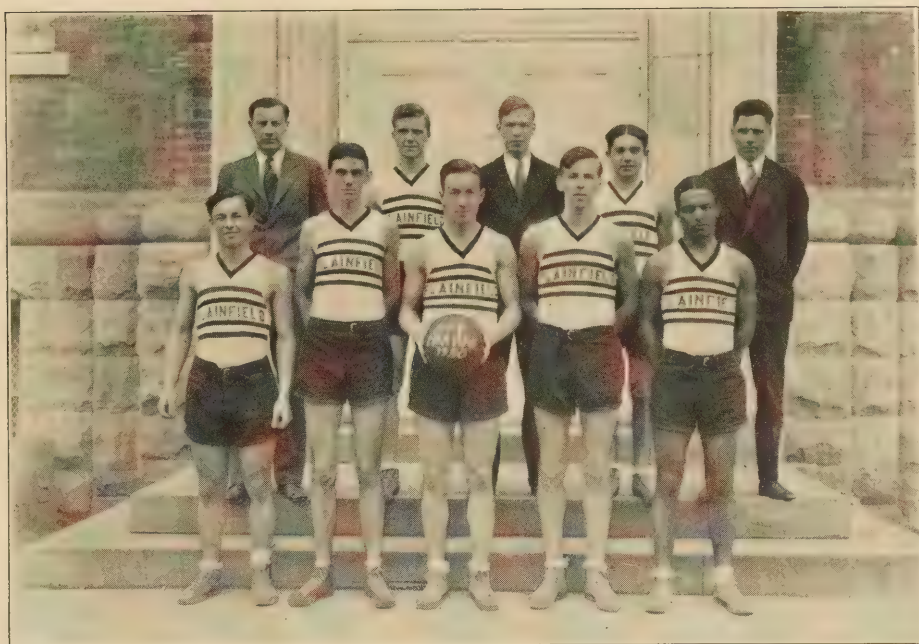

The New Brunswick game again proved a jinx, and Plainfield was defeated only after a close, hard battle. The same cry is passed on to next year's team. BEAT NEW BRUNSWICK!!

To Captain Chet Huff, Lou Donzalski, and Tom Burns go the honor and distinction of mention on the All-State Team. The ability and fight of these stars were an outstanding factor in the team's success.

Putting the whole story in a nutshell, we had one of the best aggregations ever put on the gridiron in Plainfield High School.

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

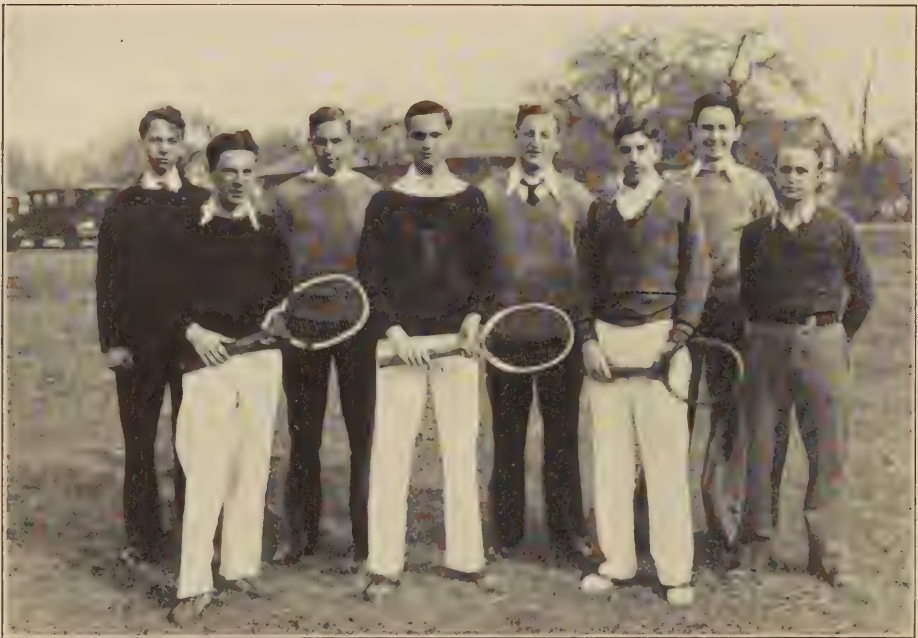

BASKETBALL

BASKETBALL was neither a success nor a failure this year. Mr. Winkler, the new coach, naturally started under a handicap, but nevertheless turned in a more than fair season. The team was handicapped at the start by the loss of some valuable players through varying circumstances. The season was started with a victory over Bound Brook. Then the team slumped for several games, but snapped into form again with spectacular wins over South Orange and East Orange. Montclair defeated our boys, but they came back with a victory over Red Bank. Then came the City Championship Series, and, for the first time in years, Plainfield dropped a game to the Canucks. However, the team proved that they could come back by winning over their rivals from across the brook in a close and exciting second game. Next came defeats by New Brunswick and East Side, but an unexpected win over the strong Central team more than made up for these losses. Then came the final and deciding game of the City Series. Our big red team cinched the title in the rousing game that followed. The season was closed with a heart-breaking loss by one point to Neptune in the State Tournament at Trenton.

Success is not confined to victory, and the prospects for next year are bright indeed. Some very good talent has been uncovered, and Coach Winkler should lead his charges off to a flying start next year.

TRIANGLE DEBATING TEAM

DEBATING SOCIETY

PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL DEBATING SOCIETY enjoyed a very successful season in the debating field.

Meetings were held regularly every Thursday morning during assembly period. The Oxford Plan was used in most of the debates. We had interesting round table discussions, and on the whole everyone participated enthusiastically.

The most important debates of the season were the Triangular Debate held in early April with Westfield and Morristown, which displayed the training and ability of the members of the various teams. The question was resolved: That Installment Buying is Detrimental to the Best Interests of the American People. Those on the affirmative team were Roger Gay, Matilda Squires, Walter Romer, and Hugh Sweeney, alternate. Although they lost the debate at Morristown, they showed interest and good sportsmanship.

The negative team defeated at Westfield consisted of Robert E. Smith, Milton Meissner, Nils Wessel, and Ethel Polsky, alternate.

We see great possibilities in different members for the future success of the society, and sincerely hope that they will co-operate in encouraging more debaters, and interest the greater portion of the student body.

We attribute our success and enjoyable sessions to the efforts of our president, Roger Gay and to our coach, Miss Ruth Le Fevre.

CAST OF MUSICAL COMEDY, "ECHOING HEARTS"

PRINCIPALS IN MUSICAL COMEDY

SENIOR PLAY

“TO BE or not to be—that is the question.” This Shakespearean excerpt was interpreted affirmatively to the letter in the Senior Class Play. It “was”. What? The most successful accomplishment of the class of '30 and one of the finest of these annual productions that has ever been presented in P. H. S. A. A. Milne, when he wrote “Belinda” must have been in an extremely ticklish mood, because it literally “brought down the house.” Most of the laughs were “pulled” by our newly-found Thespian. Neal Van Middlesworth (much to his surprise) in the role of Claude Devinish, a sophisticated poet, when he finds himself involved in a dual love affair. The title role and star part was frivolously executed by Gilberte Frey (Swiss accent and all). Opposite her, as the long lost husband, we find no other than handsome “Bernie” Townley. In the juvenile lead, opposite Neal, “Winnie” Disinger appears with genuine “Goldilocks” curls. Then Baxter, an old statistician (guess who?)—“Willie” Cohen with mustache, goatee, frock-coat and all. Betty, the maid, was ably played by Grace Halliwell of musical comedy fame. The Senior Class, when it leaves the portals of P. H. S. and goes into the world, may well be proud and boastful of this superb production.

CLASS HISTORY

FIRST CANTO—FRESHMAN JOYS

*Ah distinctly I remember
It was in the bleak September;
And each sad, uncertain member
Wandered gaping in the door—*

*Still meandered aimless ever,
Prompted by some vain endeavor,
In an innocence that never
Had been ever seen before.*

*Then a fiend that here is nameless,
With a savage joy and shameless,
Brought them unsuspecting, blameless
To a maiden named Miss Moore.
(Curses on that Sophomore!)*

*And our days became afflicted;
Harmless pastimes were restricted,
(Even spit-balls were indicted);
Life itself became a bore.*

*Still the subjects of correction
Were allowed their class election;
Thomas Burns was their selection,
And the oath of office swore.*

*How all precedent surrendered
To the verdancy that splended
On the night that we were tendered
That reception fixed of yore!*

*Then approached the dread occasions
Of our first examinations,
And we suffered such sensations
As were never felt before.*

*Followed murmurs of elation,
Louder groans of lamentation;
But the sound of execration
Was an angry ocean's roar.*

*So the wrath above descended,
Till at last our trials were ended,
And one day we comprehended
We were "Freshies" nevermore.*

SECOND CANTO— ON SOPHOMORES

*Tell me not in mournful numbers
Life is but a steady grind;
That the student never slumbers,
Studies till he's nearly blind.*

*"Life is real; life is earnest,"
Was not said of every soul.
Ask the Sophomore if he yearnest
That to labor be his goal.*

*So the second year we started
Stepping in the sands of time,
And our Freshman fears departed
Left a confidence sublime.*

*First our leader re-elected,
Then we settled down to play:
Made the "Freshies" so dejected
That their hair was like to gray.*

*When to swimming took our daughters,
Then our sons to skating flew:
So we triumphed with the waters
Either side of thirty-two.*

*Yet the year could not be ended
Till some briny tears were shed
And the high resolves ascended
Of examinations bred.*

THIRD CANTO—JUNIORS

*Half a grade, half a grade,
Half a grade onward;
Into the Junior year
Charged our three hundred.
"Forward this bright brigade;
Win for the school!" we said:
So on the third year's course
Started three hundred.*

*Say, did we make things smoke.
Straight thru athletics broke,
And our debaters spoke
Till the halls thundered.
What skill the girls revealed
Till court and hockey field
Saw all opponents yield
Shattered and sundered!*

*Was there a soul dismayed
When the class tax was laid?
Not though it left his purse
Pillaged and plundered.
Well that we had to pay,
Saved for the rainy day!
Who now would dare to say
Someone had blundered?*

*Oh, the wild acts we threw:
Found "Cinderella's" shoe;
On "Brink of Silence" too
Raved we and thundered.
So ends the charge we made;
Then we passed on a grade,
All that was left of us,
Left of three hundred.*

FOURTH CANTO—SENIORS

*Listen, my children, and you shall hear
Of the stirring times in the Senior year:
'Twas the month of September in '29
When we rallied reluctantly into line
To finish a long and hard career.*

*Less than a month was permitted to pass
Ere the leaders were chosen to pilot the class;
Burnsy and Craig were the men to come through
With Finney and Fancher the feminine two.
Then settled we down to a long winter's grind
(How entrance requirements can burden a mind!)
Till nary a Senior the devil could find
That was idly waiting for something to do.*

*Though up to our ears in an ocean of work,
The call to athletics we never could shirk;
The boys on the basketball championship seized,
While the girls through most everything easily breezed.
But the time that we really performed at our best
Was the night that the Juniors so sadly were messed;
Yet until the class roasting you'd hardly have guessed
How easily they could be worried and teased.*

*You know the rest, and it's needless to say
How "Belinda" was great when she got under way,
How the trying exams were at last gotten through,
And they gave us diplomas, the fortunate few.
So now the long journey has come to an end;
But the love of that school we have learned to defend
Shall stay with us always wherever we wend,
As our gratitude glows with a loyalty true.*

DAN ORCUTT

PROPHECIES

SOME TIME AGO the Year Book called on Professor Seesall Knowsall, mystic seer of the East (Side), and, after crossing his palm with much silver, secured his services for this annual. Translated from the original Sanskrit, the prof's native tongue, by your humble scribe, the following are glimpses of the illustrious class of '30 in daze to come—twenty years hence. For greater ease in reading, we have adopted the form below.

From the clear depths of the ball emerges a desk, so large and impressive that the cheerful countenance, expanse of forehead, and vaguely familiar horn-rimmed spectacles are barely visible. Ah! There is a gilt sign on the huge glass top: Mr. Smith—The Principal. Why, of course! Studious Bob Smith! Still, he's gained so much avoirdupois that I'd never have known him if he hadn't had his mouth open and his hands waving—speech-making, as ever!

Obviously, this next scene is a banquet. Around a table distinguished-looking intellectuals are seated, hands to ears the better the hear the toast-master's presentation of a man of serious mien. "—Mr. Edward Breese, eminent philosopher and author—"!

Hello! I hope this bearded gentleman in the surgeon's garb will pardon our intrusion into—well, it looks like an operating room. He has just turned away from a man lying on a table. Now he is laying aside three knives, two axes, and a screw driver, and is removing his kimona and cap. Well, as I live and breathe—it's Roger Gay, the boy-who-wanted-to-be-a-doctor!

The harassed-looking gentleman who has his feet twined around the legs of his chair and his fingers twined in his hair, in a posture suggesting agonized thought, looks startlingly like an athlete of no mean prowess who graced the class of '30 with his presence. It would seem that advertising layouts for the Friday afternoon Post present more of a problem to Bill Nolan than did ever an opponent on the field of sport.

This is a charming picture. A comely female stands surrounded by a ring of exceedingly small and exceedingly shiny children, whom she seems to be leading in song. Eureka! I have it! The female is Lois Fancher, and the children, the kindergarten group Lois always longed to teach!

And here, in a vast, luxurious office, an athletic figure sits bolt upright in a swivel chair. No one but a bank official could be so stern and erect. But who—? I know it now! Folks, let me introduce Mr. Thomas Burns, First Vice-President of the Haywire National Bank!

And next we see a very picture of sartorial elegance sprawled in a chair in a busy, up-to-date office, puffing judicially on a cigar, examining a busy ticker-tape with a thoughtful frown. And who might that be? Well, it might be almost anybody, but it looks very much to me as though Gordon Craig has entered the world of high finance.

A door stands open before us, a door bearing the legend "Business Manager of Shubert Productions." It wouldn't hurt anything to take a look inside, so—. A slight, short man is sitting at a desk, writing rapidly. Apparently, Joe Schuldenfrei's natural aptitude for writing checks, which he encouraged as manager of several P. H. S. stage hits (?), has turned out to be useful!

I should say that this represents the interior of a well-equipped, modern gymnasium. A class is in progress, a half hundred young men striving to emulate the strenuous contortions of the director. Something about that athletic frame is faintly suggestive—Ah! that sandy hair cinches it! I present Chester Huff, Physical Educator.

The vision, mirage—call it what you will—of a classroom presents itself. About the room some twenty girls whisper in groups, pass notes, compare clothes, or indulge in other maidenly diversions of girls deprived of the company of boys. But his unwonted absence of the stronger sex is explained by the group of young males clustered about the teacher's desk. That attractive female seems to be explaining something—but it is not the subject that interests the boys! Olive Caldwell! That's the name, but I'd never have remembered it if she hadn't giggled!

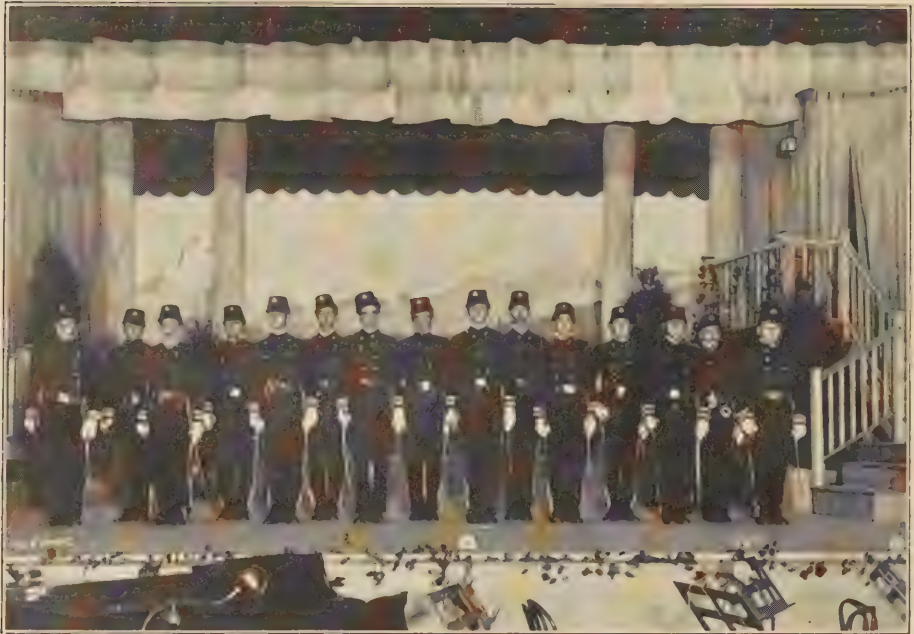

A huge airplane taxis to rest on the landing field and a helmeted and begoggled figure climbs out the cabin. Minutely he inspects the ship, then hangs an O. K. tag on it. The name on the card-board slip is—wait a minute, let's decipher it: F-r-a-n-k B-o-n-n-e-l-l, Chief of Designs Dep't!

Abruptly we have been transported to that portion of Fifth Avenue where the ultra-fashionable shops flourish. As we are borne unresisting along by the crowd, we are left high and dry before an establishment catering to women's needs in wearing apparel. And the plate-glass front bears this legend: Vivian Pearson, Designer. Well, well, well!

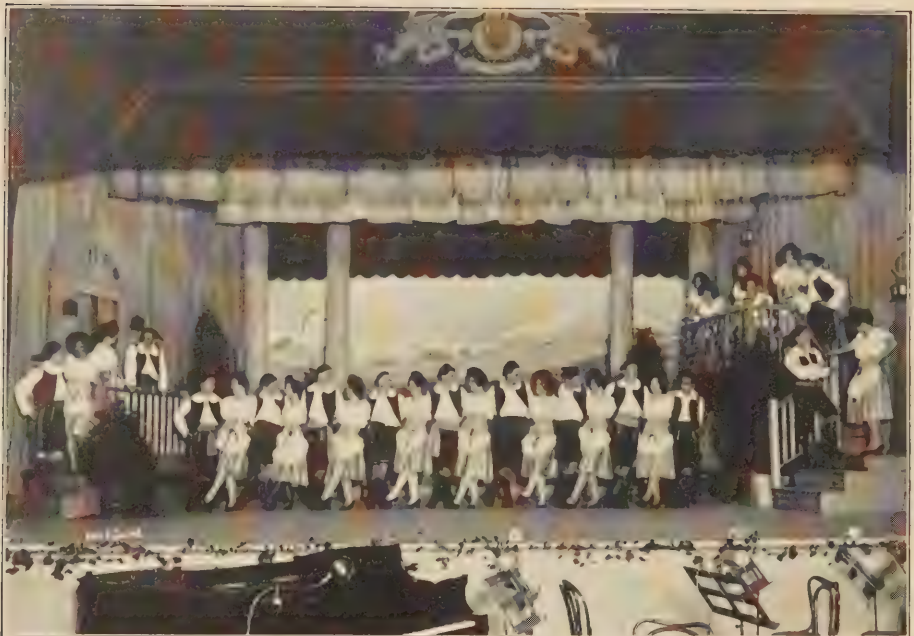

An art gallery? So it would seem. And the knot of long-haired men and short-haired women in that corner? We'll have to investigate that. Let's walk over there and look it over—Ah! But the beautiful picture does not interest us, as much as does the name of the artist. Those firm, precise letters awaken a dim memory. E. W.—who could that be? Eureka! Emil Wich!

I've read of such a place as this seems to be, but this is my first actual visit to one. But from the confusion, the met sitting about him hats on head, the haze of smoke, and other signs known to the reader of stories of newspaper life, I should unhesitatingly identify this high-speed office as the city-room of some large newspaper. And who is the familiar-looking chap over in the corner, who is so feverishly pounding out such an infernal racket on that battered typewriter? Ah! Those dark locks peeping from beneath the pearl-gray fedora (featured in "What the Well-Dressed Man Will Wear") betrays his identity. As a live and breathe, it's Harold Hoffman, reporter! ! !

And what could be sweeter, what better, more fitting finale than this last scene (at least, we hope it's the last), a pretty, domestic picture, the embodiment of martial bliss! The well-known tired business man, with the newspaper and the pipe, and the equally well-known fatigued clubwoman busily writing committee reports at a desk. But hark—a feeble piping cry descends from the upper regions and a fond smile lights the face of the fatigued clubwoman, while the T. B. M. lays aside his paper with a fatuous grin. By these signs shall ye know them—for doting parents. But—No! No! Not that! It can't be—Don't tell me that this blissfully-wedded couple can be Gilberte Frey and Ed Breese, the man-hater and woman-hater, respectively, of the class of '30! ! !

CHORUS FROM "ECHOING HEARTS"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

K NOW YE, all and sundry, that we, the Senior Class of Plainfield High School, being possessed of our right minds, right hands, and left eye-brows, have solemnly and with due observance of procedure, ritual, and the laws of the Outerstate Comment Division concocted this document which shall for lack of more appropriate epithets be styled our Last Will and Testament. And if you doubt, misdoubt, or fail to credit the above, write to your Congressman and sometime next August you will receive a package of seeds.

EXPLANATORY NOTES UPON THE ABOVE

1. sundry—this to the best of our knowledge is the old Swedish adverb meaning Freshmen.
2. right minds—the left minds were not mentioned so they have become left-outs and have been omitted.
3. ritual—this is only the editors' pun on write. Kindly excuse.
4. concocted—to concoct take three eggs, two cups glue, one ounce yak butter, one Chinese dog license, three gallons kerosene, one High Tariff Senator, and one left handed Eskimo. Mix well and stir. When the room is full of gas, drop in a match and beat it.
5. epithets—because of the censorship we will have to ask that you use your own imagination on this one.
6. seeds—there are many kinds of these seeds. Summer squash and summer not.

FIRSTLY—We, the Senior Class, do leave, bequeath, and grant to the Junior Class of this year, day, date, various legacies as stated:

item: The duty of putting on a Senior Play.

item: Best wishes for a bigger and better Baby Day.

SECONDLY, we do cast away and drop at the feet of the Sophomore A, W, X, L and J Classes the following trifles:

item: The right of being called Junior M's, N's, P's, or Q's.

item: The right of being stung $11.50 for a $2.00 class ring.

item: The honor, glory, and other emoluments derived from the Junior Play.

And eighteenthly and lastly, Dear Brethren, to the Freshmen we leave the undying honor and glory of having been mentioned in the KALEIDOSCOPE.

TO THE NEXT ORACLE BOARD WE LEAVE IN ALL DUE HONOR THE FOLLOWING:

item: One bottle rubbing alcohol (slightly used).

item: Twenty-four letters addressed to the advertising manager and marked "Urgent". These were delivered last September and have not yet been opened.

item: A fine collection of miscellaneous year books. These make fascinating reading in the long winter evening.

item: Our blessing upon you, dear children, and may you live happily ever after.

PERSONAL BEQUESTS

item: To MISS MOORE, one jar paste and one hundred seventy-four thumbtacks. These originally came from the library. Render unto Caesar those things which are Caesar's.

item: To MISS BOND, seventeen yo-yo's for her collection. She would probably get them anyway.

item: To MISS CUMMING, one piece chewing gum (slightly used).

item: To MR. HUBBARD a vacation. He needs it after getting our ship of state into port.

item: To MR. HAUCK, a comb and brush. This is the hope that the good work begun by last year's class has borne fruit (hair).

item: To MR. BEERS, a new desk top. He has about worn his out pounding on it.

item: To MR. BURDICK, the joy of proofreading next year's book.

item: To MR. SAVAGE, one jew's-harp.

item: To MR. HENDERSON, one ticket on the Pony Express.

To all of you, we leave best wishes for a Happy Christmas, Easter, New Year's, 4th of July, Washington's Birthday, Lincoln's Birthday, George Broadbent's Birthday, Labor Day, April First, and to all a good night.
